

Friends of the York County Library Faithful Friend Award

Guidelines

The award was established in 2022 to honor individuals who have contributed to the Friends and/or the York County Library over an extended period. Criteria are similar to those for the Joanne McMaster Volunteer of the Year Award (i.e., extraordinary level of dedication to the Friends of YCL or to YCL) but with the additional requirement of longevity of service. The award may be given to previous winners of the Volunteer of the Year Award.

Examples of this type of outstanding service include:

- Exceptional service to a specific library department or branch
- Significant effort to friend-raising and fundraising
- Superior leadership
- Support of the Friends of the York County Library mission:

The purpose of Friends of the York County Library shall be to maintain an association of persons interested in libraries; to focus public attention on the York County Library; to stimulate the use of the library's resources and services; to receive and encourage gifts, endowments and bequests to the York County Library; to support and cooperate with the library in developing library services and facilities for the community; to raise money for approved library projects; to lend legislative support where needed; and to support the freedom to read as expressed in the American Library Association Bill of Rights.
